Effective Date: April 14, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

WHO WILL FOLLOW THIS NOTICE:

This notice describes the privacy practices of Northside Hospital's Physician Practices (each a "Practice" and collectively, the "Practices") and those of:

- Any health care professional authorized to enter information into your chart.
- All employees, staff and other Practice personnel.

Northside Hospital and its Practices operate as an "organized health care arrangement" and are presenting this document as a joint notice of privacy practices.

All Practice entities, sites and locations follow the terms of this notice. In addition, these entities, sites and locations may share medical information with each other for treatment, payment or health care operations purposes described in this notice.

OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION:

We understand that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting medical information about you. We create a record of the care and services you receive at the Practice. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by the Practice.

This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical information.

We are required by law to:

- make sure that medical information that identifies you is kept private;
- give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical information about you; and
- Follow the terms of the notice that are currently in effect.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose medical information. For each category of uses or disclosures, we will explain what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

For Treatment: We may use medical information about you to provide you with medical treatment or services. We may disclose medical information about you to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, or other Practice personnel who are involved in your care and treatment. For example, a doctor treating you for a broken leg may need to know if you have diabetes because diabetes may slow the healing process. We may share medical information about you in order to coordinate the different things you need, such as prescriptions, lab work and x-rays. We may also disclose medical information to family members, clergy or other individuals involved in your care.

For Payment: We may use and disclose medical information about your treatment and services to bill and collect from you, your insurance company or a third party payer. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about your visit so that they will pay us or reimburse you. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to determine whether you plan will cover it.

For Health Care Operations: We may use and disclose medical information about you for Practice operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the Practice and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. We may also combine medical information about many Practice patients to decide what additional services the Practice should offer and what services are not needed. We may also disclose information to doctors, nurses, technicians, medical students, and other Practice personnel for review and learning purposes. We may also combine the medical information we have with medical information from other Practices to see where we can make improvements. We may remove information that identifies you from this set of medical information to protect your privacy.

Appointment Reminders: We may use and disclose medical information to contact you as a reminder that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care at the Practice.

Treatment Alternatives: We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.

Health-Related Benefits and Services: We may use and disclose medical information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

Fundraising Activities: We may use medical information about you to contact you in an effort to raise money for Northside Hospital and its operations. We may disclose medical information to a foundation related to Northside Hospital so that the foundation may contact you in raising money for Northside Hospital. We only would release contact information, such as your name, address and telephone number and the dates you received treatment or services. You may opt out of being contacted for fund-raising purposes. If you do not want to be contacted for fundraising efforts, please notify us via email at optout@northside.com.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care: We may release medical information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your medical care. We may also give information to someone who helps pay for your care. In addition, we may disclose medical information about you to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort so that your family can be notified about your condition, status and location.

Research: Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose medical information about you for research purposes. We generally will obtain your written authorization to use your medical information for research purposes. There may be limited circumstances when access to your information for research purposes may be allowed without your specific consent. These will be limited to cases when use or disclosure was approved by an Institutional Review Board or Privacy Board.

Business Associates: There are some services provided for the Practice through contracts with business associates. One example is the copy service we use when making copies of your health record. When these services are contracted, we may disclose your healthcare information to our business associate so that they can perform the job we have asked them to do. To protect your health information, however, we require the business associate to appropriately safeguard your information.

As Required By Law: We will disclose medical information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: We may use and disclose medical information about you when necessary to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person. Any disclosure, however, would only be to someone able to help prevent the threat.
